1. CDJ agrees to provide high quality sound equipment, recorded music, Disc Jockey (and/or MC by agreement) entertainment and lighting equipment at event address at the times listed.
2. In the event of any unforeseen circumstances such as death, serious illness or injury to the DJ, unexpected mechanical delays or failures, or acts of nature, the Contractor agrees that all efforts will be made to secure another appropriate DJ/MC or equipment for the night. If for any reason this is not possible the Contractor's deposit and balance shall be refunded in full by CDJ.
3. Subject to clause 2, CDJ guarantees that the DJ on the night will be as stated in this agreement personally.
4. Should Contractors cancel this event CDJ will retain deposit as liquidated damages unless the date can be rebooked for at least the same total fee. Any cancellation after the deposit has been made must be in writing.
5. Should Contractors postpone this event for any reason less than 4 weeks from function date, CDJ will retain deposit as liquidated damages unless the date can be rebooked for at least the same total fee. Accommodation will be made whenever possible to reschedule cancelled or postponed events but are subject to availability and receipt of a further advance payment.
6. For outdoor performances, Contractors shall provide side and overhead shelter for set-up area. Should CDJ be forced to terminate performance after commencement due to weather that cannot be protected by Contractor's provided shelter, total performance fee is due.
7. Contractor ensures venue has all appropriate amplified music licensing and performance permits.
8. Contractor agrees to ensure the security of the performance area and allows CDJ the option to terminate performance if Contractor, their agents or guests interfere, impede, or constitute a nuisance to CDJ where the integrity, quality, or safety of CDJ equipment and/or performance shall become detrimentally affected. In this event, Contractors shall pay the total performance fee regardless of the length of performance.
9. Contractor accepts full financial responsibility during the time of performance for loss or damage to CDJ sound, lighting, music library, or personal property and equipment that is caused by themselves, their contractors, agents or guests at the event.
10. CDJ is not responsible for power failure or power outages. If such event occurs, total performance fee is required. CDJ will do their best to keep your guests entertained until the power comes back on, or until contracted time expires.
11. In the event of a dispute, both parties shall agree upon a payment or refund amount. If not resolved, Contractor agrees such matter will be acted upon subject to the laws of the City of Christchurch, New Zealand. If legal advice is sought to protect the rights of CDJ, losing party will pay the legal fees for both parties, plus all court costs, if any.
12. If Contractor does not pay the bill by the due date for payment, the Contractor will pay any costs incurred in recovering the money owed.
13. Approval of overtime is to be agreed between Contractor and CDJ and is payable to CDJ at event at the rate of $100.00 (plus GST) per hour or part hour.
14. If Contractor selects music for the event that CDJ does not have then Contractor can either supply CDJ with their own copy provided it's on CD, or CDJ will purchase music to a maximum value of $40 and Contractor will be responsible for the remainder.
